6. Cancellation:

* Cancellation or rescheduling of a session should be done no later than 48 hours in advance. If an appointment is not cancelled or rescheduled 48 hours in advance, the full costs will be charged. In case of late or no cancellation, this means for Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future, that no other appointment can be scheduled that time period, thus lost time.

7. Liability:

* Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future, excludes any liability in respect of any damage or injury arising out of or in connection with the services offered by Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future.
* Services provided by Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future do not constitute a guarantee of anything.

8. Amendment of terms and conditions:

Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future, is entitled at any time to amend these general terms and conditions. The general terms and conditions, as they read at the time before the amendment, shall continue to apply to the services that had been established at that time. Subsequent services will then be subject to the new general terms and conditions.

9. Professional Organisation:

Insofar as the services fall within the field of expertise of the professional organisation NIP, to which psychologist is affiliated, then the psychologist is bound by the provisions of her professional organisation during sessions. The complaint regulation of the professional organisation in question is valid to the extent that any complaint falls within the scope of the complaint regulation invoked by the client or psychologist.

10. Applicable law:

The agreements and services between Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future, and the client are governed by Dutch law.
