5. Payment terms:

- *The client complies with the payment obligation. In the event of an employer programme/request from a third party, payment will be made by the employer/third party.
- *Payment for a session should be made in advance by bank transfer, no later than 24 hours before the session takes place. The invoice will be sent by e-mail, together with the appointment confirmation. Client agrees to transfer the payment to account NL70RABO0311775128 to Solmir Colors, Practice for the Future in Best.
- *If payment is not made at least 24 hours prior to the session, the session cannot take place and a payment reminder will follow. If the client does not fulfil the obligation within 8 days from the date of the payment reminder, healthcare provider, is entitled to charge an administration fee at the second reminder.
- *In case of late payment, healthcare provider is entitled to suspend further treatment until the client has fulfilled the payment obligation.

6. Cancellation:

Cancellation or rescheduling of a session should be done no later than 48 hours in advance. If an appointment is not cancelled or rescheduled 48 hours in advance, the full costs will be charged. In case of late or no cancellation, this means for healthcare provider, that no other appointment can be scheduled that time period, thus lost time.

7. Liability:

- * Healthcare provider excludes any liability in respect of any damage or injury arising out of or in connection with the services offered by healthcare provider.
- * Services provided by healthcare provider do not constitute a guarantee of anything.

8. Amendment of terms and conditions:

Healthcare provider is entitled at any time to amend these general terms and conditions. The general terms and conditions, as they read at the time before the amendment, shall continue to apply to the services that had been established at that time. Subsequent services will then be subject to the new general terms and conditions.

9. Professional Organisation:

Insofar as the services fall within the field of expertise of the professional organisation NIP, to which healthcare provider, c.q. NIP-Psychologist is affiliated, then the healthcare provider is bound by the provisions of the professional organisation during sessions. The complaint regulation of the professional organisation in question is valid to the extent that any complaint falls within the scope of the complaint regulation invoked by the client or psychologist.
